

Personal data protection

in the operation of sales shadle.eu

informations according § 15 paragraph 1 law no. 122/2013 collection of laws about the protection of personal data as amended

1. The shadle.eu operator and the service provider under a distance contract

1) The operator of the personal data information system www.shadle.eu is the company:

SHADLE Ltd.,

Head Office: Nábrežná 4648/27, Nové Zámky 940 02

Company ID: 52 123 731

TIN: 2120902344

VAT ID: SK2120902344

The company is registered in the Commercial Register of the District Court of Nitra, Section: Ltd., File No.:47227/N (hereinafter „operator“ uder the Act)

2. Purpose of the processing of personal data

1) The operator processes personal data for the purpose of concluding a purchase contract by e-mail to www.shadle.eu or otherwise in fulfilling the obligations arising from this contract.

2) The operator processes the buyer's personal data in particular for the following purposes:

- processing the order
- closing the purchase contract
- issuing the tax document
- registering the orders for solving any complaints

3. List of processed personal data

1) An operator shall process the personal data of the persons concerned in contracts and other documents to the extent that such personal data are provided to the operator on documents, sheets and communications or in telephone conversations between the operator and the person concerned.

2) The operator processes the following personal data of the persons concerned:

- name and surname
- permanent residence
- contact details (telephone number, e-mail)
- goods data

4. Voluntariness of provision of personal data

1) An operator shall obtain personal data from the concerned person to the extent necessary to meet the obligations arising from the contract about lease concluded between the operator and the person concerned.

2) The Buyer (the person concerned) provides such personal information to the Seller (the operator) voluntarily in order to fulfill his obligations under the Contract and to further communicate with him.

3) The Buyer notes, that his personal data will not be given to a third party, to this the Seller undertakes.

4) The seller processes the personal data of the person concerned for the time necessary to fulfill his obligations under the purchase contract and generally binding legal regulations.

5. Providing and disclosure of personal data

1) An on-line reservation provider provides personal data about clients obtained by e-mail to a third party only to the extent necessary to fulfill its obligations under the purchase contract and specific legislation.

2) An operator shall not disclose personal data to any third party unless it is necessary to fulfill the obligations under the laws.

6. Publication of personal data

1) The operator does not disclose the personal data of the buyer.

7. Liquidation of personal data

1) In the case of the provision of personal data by a person, if the purchase contract is not concluded, personal data will be destroyed within 30 days of the data being communicated to the operator by the data subject.

2) After termination of the purchase contract, the operator archives contracts with clients for 2 years. Upon expiry of this period, the personal data of the person concerned will be liquidated.

8. Guidance on the rights of the person concerned

1) The person concerned is entitled, upon written request, to require the operator

- confirmation whether personal data are processed or not,
- in a generally understandable form, information on the processing of personal data in the information system within the scope of § 15 par. (1) letters (a) to (e), second to sixth point, citation of the law; when issuing a decision the person concerned is entitled to be informed of the procedure for the processing and evaluation of operations,
- in a generally understandable form, accurate information about the source from which it obtained its personal data for the processing,
- in a generally comprehensible form, a list of its personal data being processed;
- correcting or deleting its incorrect, incomplete or outdated personal data being processed;
- deleting its personal data whose purpose of processing has ended; if they are subject to processing official documents containing personal data, may request their return,
- the liquidation of their personal data which is subject to processing, if the law has been violated,

2) The person concerned, upon written request, has the right to object to

- the processing of its personal data, which implies that they are or will be processed for direct marketing purposes without his consent, and call for their destruction,
- the use of personal data for direct marketing purposes in the mail correspondence, or
- of personal data for direct marketing purposes.

3. At the written request or personally, if the case does not delay, the concerned person has the right at any time to object to the processing of personal data in cases where there are legitimate reasons or evidence of unauthorized interference with his / her rights and the protected interests that are or may be in a particular case, such processing of personal data is impaired; if the legal grounds do not prevent it and it is proved that the objection of the person concerned is justified, the operator is obliged to block and destroy the personal data the processing of which the person concerned has complained without undue delay as soon as circumstances allow.

4) If the person concerned exercises his / her right in writing and the contents of his / her application indicate that he or she exercises his / her right, the application shall be deemed to be filed under this Act; a request made by electronic mail or fax shall be delivered by the person concerned in writing no later than three days after the date of dispatch,

5) If the person concerned suspects that his personal data is being unduly processed, he may file an application for the opening of a personal data protection action with the Office.

6) If the person concerned is not entitled to legal acts in full, his rights may be exercised by the legal representative.

7) The person concerned is required to provide only true personal information. For the falsity of the personal data to the meaning of § 16 paragraph 1 law no. 122/2013 collection of laws about the Protection of Personal Data, as amended by the later legislation, is responsible that, who have provided them to the information system.

9. Liability of the Operator

1) The Operator is not responsible for the misuse of personal data by a third person, who received this personal data without authorization.

2) The operator's responsibility for breach of personal data protection is governed by the provisions of law no. 122/2013 collection of laws about the Protection of Personal Data as amended.

3) For comply with the provisions of the aforementioned law, the operator has prepared a documentation of security measures.